

FERNANDO ANDRADE
CONFLUENCE
PRESENTED BY NEILAND SAMMONS II

APRIL 28 - JUNE 11, 2023

About the Artist

Born in 1987 in the border town of Acuña, Mexico, and living in San Antonio since the age of 7, Andrade began drawing professionally in 2012, often conveying the many facets of the immigrant experience through his work, including drawings, abstract paintings, and mixed media.

Today, he is known more for his representational, emotive drawings created by using figures and objects to explore sociopolitical commentary and his cross-cultural identity. "My figurative works are often reflective imagery capturing the emotional complexity of the immigrant experience. I attempt to emphasize humanity, isolation, mental health, and loss," said Andrade.

In contrast, his abstract paintings are improvised and organic colorful compositions. "I view my abstract paintings as therapeutic, allowing myself to imagine space, arrangement, and rhythmic affinities."

Andrade has worked with galleries in Manhattan and Santa Fe, Andrade has exhibited his work in numerous galleries including solo shows at Gerald Peter's Project Gallery, Santa Fe, N.M.; and Blue Star Contemporary, San Antonio; as well as duo and group shows at the Mexican Cultural Institute, San Antonio; National Museum of Mexican Art, Chicago; Meadows Museum of Art, Shreveport, LA; and Southwest School of Art, San Antonio. Andrade has attended residencies at the Vermont Studio Center, and Elevarte Community Studio in Chicago and was the recipient of the National Association of Latino Arts and Cultures individual artist grant in 2018.
